

Bounce Forward..

with Charmaine Hammond

Building resilient and inspired teams!

Grow. Build. Change. Connect

Who better to lead courageous dialogues and help build and inspire resilient teams than Charmaine Hammond? Beginning her career as a Correctional Officer in adult and young offender facilities she pursued her passion for conflict management, obtaining a Masters Degree in Conflict Analysis & Management and was a Chartered Mediator for 10 years. She has managed several non-profit organizations, and spearheaded the development of three others.

As a Manager and Leader, she pursued her passion for leadership and has been a business owner for the past 12 years; Charmaine has a solid background in leading courageous dialogue and helping teams bounce forward through change, conflict, challenge and adversity. A champion of community development, she has worked and volunteered in many partnerships and collaborations, this approach is so important to Charmaine that she facilitates learning events and consults on this topic. She has been a successful business owner since 1997, owning two businesses in Fort McMurray, Alberta prior to relocating the business to Edmonton, Alberta.

In fact, solving problems and building solutions, communicating for success and strengthening relationships are the foundations of Charmaine's business. Professional Speaker, facilitator, and consultant Charmaine helps businesses, organizations and groups build tomorrow's solutions today through education, innovation and motivation. Owner of Hammond International Inc. she helps teams and individuals reach and exceed their potential through personal and professional development. Having spoken in five countries to date, audiences find Charmaine to be a dynamic speaker who engages the audience and challenges participants to take bold and intentional actions, taking learnings to the next level. She weaves in humour, motivation and stories in her presentations and creates the opportunity for meaningful impacts and transformation.
